

CHARLOTTE K. FRANK

Mentor of the Year

“As I made my way up Fifth Avenue on an America-Israel Friendship League (AIFL) float two weeks ago, at the Israeli Day Parade, I was thrilled to see thousands of young people totally involved. Today’s Jewish Heritage Programs celebration is also absolutely appropriate because of the impact their activities have on the lives of young Jewish professionals. Because of the JHP, these young people are learning about the importance of interconnecting with coreligionists and benefitting from the mentoring they receive.

My personal involvement as Chairs of the Executive Committee of the AIFL and of the ADL NY Region Education Committee and as trustee of the Sutton Place Synagogue as well as my involvement in other education and Jewish groups enables me to be especially appreciative of Jewish Heritage Programs and all it does for our young people. In every organization the emphasis is enthusiastically getting the next generation involved. JHP does this admirably, and for this I salute it, its officers and its members.”
